CALL FOR APPLICATION

The government of Rwanda's vision is to create a media industry that is competitive and one that truly serves the needs of the citizens through quality programming and content.

The Media High Council (MHC), a statutory institution, established by the law N° 03/2013 of 08/02/2013 determining its mission, organization and functioning. It's mandated with the cardinal responsibility of building the capacity of the Media sector in Rwanda. In the process of implementing its mandate, MHC would like to invite eligible and interested media practitioners and managers who fulfil the following criteria to submit their applications on the following trainings that were organised in partnership with ARFEM and UNDP. Those trainings are scheduled in August and September, 2019.

1. Training of female media practitioners on fundable project design;
2. Training of media managers on Gender equality;
3. Training of female journalists on mobilizing women to participate in the implementation of Government programs.

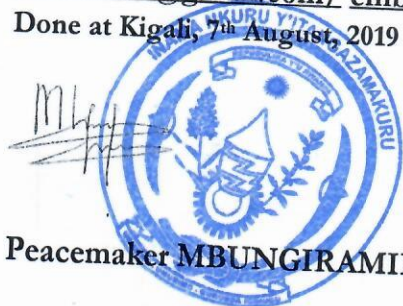

Eligibility criteria:

1. The motivation words explaining in minimum 200 words and maximum 400 words the reason why you need to attend the training (describing what motivates you to apply for the selected training, expectations, what will be the added value to your personal performance and to your media outlet in general);
2. Having a valid press card from RMC;
3. Recommendation letter from his/her active media house registered at RMC/RURA;
4. Having filled MHC questionnaire for journalists requesting for training.

The applications should have been submitted not later than Tuesday, 13th August 2019 at 5 PM prompt and must be made electronically on only one selected training via a complete online application form available on the MHC website: www.mhc.gov.rw or <https://bit.ly/2YPWtLi>. Late applications will be rejected.
